

Citizen Participation Plan Consolidated Plan 2025-2030

Citizen Participation Plan

Introduction

The purpose of the Citizen Participation Plan for the city of Las Vegas HUD Consolidated Plan (HCP) is to encourage participation by all citizens, especially very low- and low-income persons, and particularly those living in blighted areas and areas where CDBG funds may be used. Participation includes minorities and non-English speaking persons, and persons with mobility, visual and hearing impairments. The following guidelines provide the steps that are taken by the City to maximize citizen participation in the development of the HCP and in the allocation of funds.

A portion of the Citizen Participation Plan describes the respective community participation processes developed to ensure an atmosphere of open communication and cooperation between the City, local organizations and businesses, and individual citizens concerned with the health and vitality of their communities, neighborhoods, and homes.

Access to Information

To ensure that citizens and interested groups have access to information that may have an impact on their particular community interests, the following information is available, on the City's website www.lasvegasnevada.gov in addition to hard copies upon request:

- Annual Action Plans
- Five-Year Consolidated Plan
- Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER)
- Citizen Participation Plan

Anti-Displacement

It is the policy of the city of Las Vegas to discourage displacement by encouraging non-profit subrecipients to purchase vacant dwellings or dwellings. In cases where displacement occurs, the City will follow the requirements of Uniform Relocation Act. Levels of assistance are consistent with the requirements of the Uniform Relocation Act.

Publishing the Plan

Each public meeting shall be posted and advertised in accordance with the Nevada Open Meeting Law and HUD participation requirements. Sufficient advance notice for each of the hearings will be provided. The City of Las Vegas will utilize local newspapers, including the Las Vegas Review Journal, and other minority newspapers (if available) to publish a summary of the HCP. This summary will describe the contents and purpose of the plan and will include where/how the plan may be examined.

Public Hearings

As required by federal regulations, at least two community-wide public hearings will be held on the housing and community development needs, development of proposed activities, and review of program performance. One hearing will be held during the development of the draft plan, before its publication for public comment. The second public hearing will be held during the public comment period. The hearings will address housing and community development needs and the proposed activities.

Additionally, in an effort to offer a variety of avenues for public participation, designed to accommodate a range of cultural, communication and learning styles, the following participation opportunities may be offered:

1. Interactive Workshops

A series of interactive workshops may be held in various locations throughout the City. Locations will be selected that ensure accessibility for low-income residents, the disabled, seniors, and geographically eligible residents to receive funds. Each session may cover the following topics:

- Orientation to the Consolidated Plan process;
- Review of the programs covered by the Consolidated Plan, the range of activities eligible under those programs, and the amount of funding anticipated being available.
- Review of how the City has employed the resources available to it in addressing the community's housing and community development needs;
- Opportunity for citizens to identify local housing and community development needs and issues, with particular emphasis on new or emerging needs;
- Prioritizing among needs and issues; and
- Identifying additional resources the community may leverage to complement or coordinate with state and federal resources.

2. Participation In working groups

The City may elect to form one or more small working groups, focusing on specific topics, as part of Its Consolidated Plan process. Participation of citizens in these groups will be encouraged.

3. Internet Access

The Citizen Participation Plan, the Consolidated Plan, Annual Action Plans, and CAPER will be available to citizens through the city of Las Vegas website www.lasvegasnevada.gov.

Printed versions of all documents will be made available upon request.

Access to Meetings

Meetings will be located, when possible, convenient to public transportation, in facilities with handicapped access. The City will provide translation services during meetings for non-English speaking residents, as appropriate.

Virtual public hearings, as allowed by HUD, may be held when necessary for public health reasons.

Public Comment Period

The HCP participation process will provide a 30-day comment period to allow citizens to read the proposed HCP and to formulate comments regarding its specific objectives. Draft copies of the HCP will be made available on the Internet at www.lasvegasnevada.gov.

A reasonable number of complimentary copies will be made available upon request to concerned citizens or assisting agencies. Citizen Input provided verbally and in writing will be included in the HCP public comment section. A copy of citizen comments and views will be incorporated in the HCP, and, if applicable, the respective reasons for the non-inclusion of suggested revisions into the final document.

Consolidated Annual Performance Evaluation Reports (CAPER)

Performance reports are made available to the public for a 15-day review period prior to their submittal to HUD. Notices are published in local newspapers. Any citizen comments, either in writing or presented orally at public hearings, are incorporated into the performance reports.

Plan Availability and Timely Notification

Copies of the HCP will be made available from the Department of Neighborhood Services and online at www.lasvegasnevada.gov.

The City will provide timely notification by adhering to all posting requirements in compliance with the Nevada Open Meeting Law.

1. Newspaper Coverage

At a minimum, advertising space will be purchased to publish announcements and required summaries in a newspaper of general citywide circulation. When appropriate, multiple newspapers may be used, including local non-daily publications, and papers serving minority communities. Display advertisements as well as legal advertisements may be used.

2. Other Media

The City will prepare, as needed, press releases about workshops, working groups, public hearings and new program availability for distribution on all City social media platforms, as well as make them available upon request to broadcast television and radio stations for their use. The City may also use other media as appropriate, such as flyers, bulletin boards, Internet, libraries, etc.

Access to Records

The City will provide reasonable public access to information and related records from the preceding five years.

Technical Assistance

The City will provide technical assistance, upon request, to qualified very low- and low-income groups in developing proposals for funding under any of the programs covered by the HCP. The City will determine the level and type of assistance to be provided.

The City will provide needed technical assistance at public meetings, to citizens and their representative groups, concerning the HCP process and the public comment portion of the plan. This assistance may include:

- Providing grant applications and instructions
- Providing staff assistance in completing and responding to questions that may arise out of the development process.

Available Documents

The following documents will be available for public viewing and download at the Department of Neighborhood Services website at www.lasvegasnevada.gov:

1. The City HUD Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plans
2. Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER)
3. Community Development Recommendation Board Meeting Agendas and Minutes

The following documents will be available at the City of Las Vegas Department of Neighborhood Services at 495 S. Main Street, 3rd Floor, Las Vegas, NV 89101:

1. Project Environmental Review Records
2. Mailings and promotional materials
3. Records of public hearings (Available from the City Clerk's Office)
4. Regulations governing the programs

Community Comments and Complaints

The City will solicit input from very low- and low-income persons, particularly those living in blighted areas and where CDBG funds are proposed to be used. Input will be solicited from minorities and non-English speaking persons and persons with mobility, visual or hearing impairments.

Public comments received, in writing or orally at the public hearings, will be reviewed by the City's respective jurisdictions to determine if any action is needed. If a response is deemed necessary, the respective jurisdictions will provide a written response to the citizen. A summary of all comments and responses received during the public comment and plan development period will be included in the HCP.

If the City receives a written citizen complaint related to the HCP development of the citizen participation plan, or to the amendments and performance report, the complaint will be reviewed, summarized and responded to within 15 working days by the City.

Amendments

The criteria for Non-Substantial Amendments and Substantial Amendments are defined as follows:

Non-Substantial Amendments

Either the termination, addition or change of any planned or actual activity in an amount of $499,999 or less, or a change in location of any planned or actual activity within a five mile radius from the original site.

Substantial Amendments

Either the termination, addition or change of any planned or actual activity in an amount greater than $500,000 or a change in location of any planned or actual activity outside a five mile radius from the original site.

Before a Substantial Amendment can be implemented, the respective jurisdiction must provide citizens with a reasonable notice utilizing local newspapers with at least 30 days to comment. The respective jurisdiction shall consider all citizen comments received and attach a summarized evaluation of acceptable and unacceptable comments to the Substantial Amendment.

Adoption of the Citizen Participation Plan

The HCP shall be approved by the City Council after the agenda item is legally posted and copies of the HCP are made available to the public.
