WHAT FAMILIES CAN EXPECT

Season Format

Most seasons run 6-8 weeks and include one weekly practice and seven officiated games.

Games

Most games are played Saturdays between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Some weekday games may be scheduled. Locations will vary depending on sport. See individual sport descriptions below for more details.

Practices

Practices usually begin 2-3 weeks before the first game. Day and time depend on facility and volunteer coach availability.

Team Formation

Players are placed by age division. Families may request a specific coach, teammate, neighborhood group, or existing team during registration. We make every effort to accommodate requests, but placement cannot be guaranteed.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When will my coach contact me?

Coaches generally contact families after teams are formed and before practices begin. Contact LV City Sports if practices are approaching and you have not received team information. Your welcome email will give you specific dates.

Can my child play with a friend or specific coach?

Requests may be entered during registration. Staff will make reasonable efforts to accommodate them, but placement requests are not guaranteed and will depend on enrollment, division balance, coach availability, and roster space.

What happens when a league fills?

You may place yourself on the waitlist. Staff will contact families if space becomes available or an additional team can be formed.

Are the leagues competitive?

LV City Sports offers recreation-based leagues focused on learning, participation, sportsmanship, and fun. Some older divisions may include standings or playoffs.

What does my child need for the first practice?

Bring water, appropriate athletic clothing, required safety equipment, and the sport-specific items listed in this guide.

Can I volunteer to coach?

Yes. Our programs rely on parent and community volunteers. Contact LV City Sports to begin the application, screening, and training process.

Volunteer Coaches: Our leagues are led by volunteer parents and community volunteers. Head coaches complete required background screening and receive training and resources through the National Alliance for Youth Sports (NAYS).
