

2018 Mayor's Urban
Design Awards

Building and Environment

- Nominee: C|3 Lofts
- 1005 & 1015 S. 3rd St., Designed by David Almany of Almany Architecture and Ryan Allord of RADstudio / Big Block Partners LLC

Building and Environment

- Nominee: El Benjamin
- 519 S. 6th St., Designed by Thomas J Schoeman / Robert Peccole and Chris Gonya

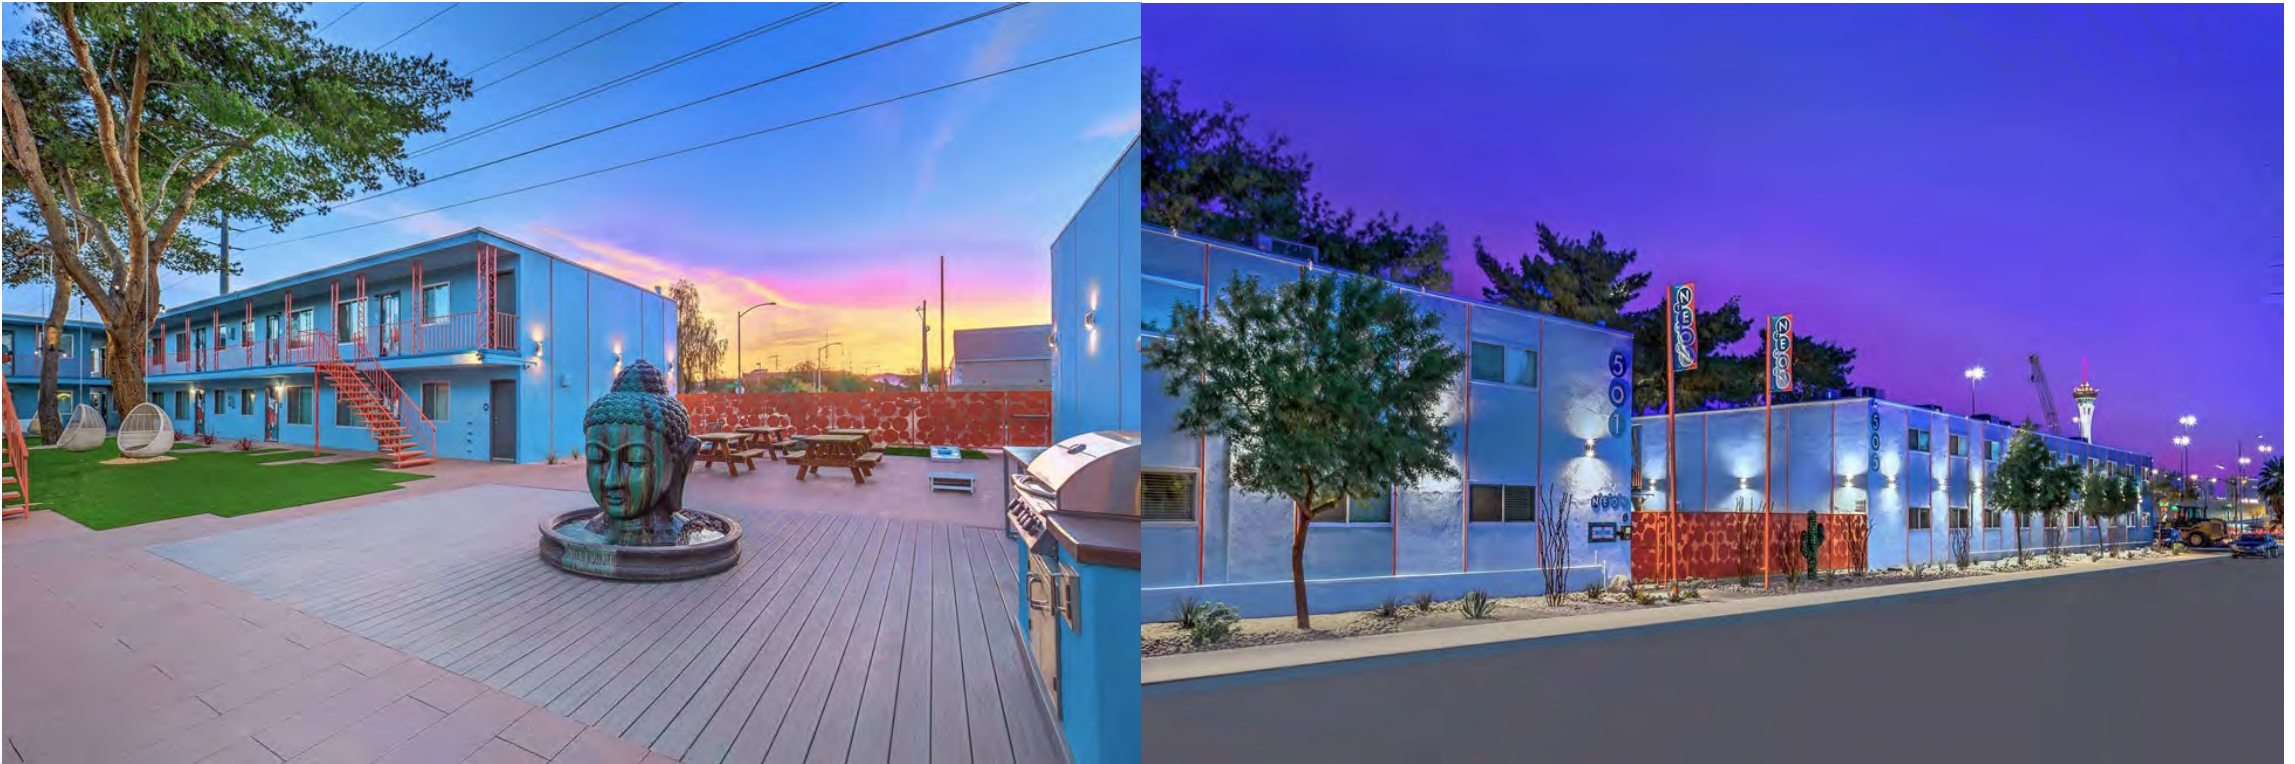

Building and Environment

- Nominee: Fremont9
- 901 Fremont St., Designed by the Wolff Company

Building and Environment

- Nominee: Neon Apartments
- 501 Desert Ln., Designed by Bunnyfish Studio / Brian Plaster

Building and Environment

- Winner: Fremont9

Historic Preservation & Adaptive Reuse

- Nominee: Jammyland Cocktail Bar & Reggae Kitchen
- 1121 S. Main St., Designed by Rob Gurdison / Allan Katz & Danielle Crouch

Historic Preservation & Adaptive Reuse

- Nominee: The Underground at The Mob Museum
- 300 Stewart Ave., Designed by The Mob Museum

Historic Preservation & Adaptive Reuse

- Nominee: Nevada Taste Site
- 1221 S. Main St., Designed by Derek Stonebarger / Rob Gurdison

Historic Preservation & Adaptive Reuse

- Winners: Jammyland and The Mob Museum

Public Art

- Nominee: Appropriation
- 495 S. Main St., Designed by Camilla Quinn

Public Art

- Nominee: Artistic Bike Racks
- Downtown Las Vegas, Designed by Mark Melnick & Randy Mendre

Public Art

- Nominee: In Flight: Energy Liberated
- 495 S. Main St., Designed by Nova May

Public Art

- Nominee: Radial Symmetry
- Main St. & Commerce St., Designed by Luis Varela-Rico

Public Art

- Nominee: Uncommon Vegas
- Historic Westside School, Designed by Nevada Preservation Foundation

Public Art

- Nominee: Vibrance
- 495 S. Main St., Designed by Brian Henry

Public Art

- Winner: Radial Symmetry

Public Places

- Nominee & Winner: Main Street Beautification
- Main St. between Charleston Blvd. & Las Vegas Blvd., Designed by City of Las Vegas

