	Helldorado Days is the longest running civic event in Las Vegas. Launched in 1935 by the Benevolent and Protective Order of the Elks Lodge No. 1468, Helldorado developed into an annual event – a rodeo, carnival, and parades – celebrating city’s roots and western heritage. The Elks Lodge continued production of the Helldorado through the late 1990s. Helldorado Days was revived for the Las Vegas Centennial in 2005 through a partnership of the Centennial Commission and the Elks Lodge. Since 2006, the Centennial Commission has allocated over $2 million to the city of Las Vegas for producing the annual Helldorado Days parades. The event was called “Las Vegas Days” in 2019 but returned to the original Helldorado Days moniker in 2023.
