

John S. Park Oral History Project

Grant	$69,074
Organization	Board of Regents of the Nevada System of Higher Education, University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV)
Year	2008
	The John S. Park Historic District, built primarily between the early 1930s to the mid-1950s, was the first Las Vegas residential community listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Residents included city leaders, county commissioners and governors. The John S. Park Oral History Project was a series of extensive oral histories conducted with current and previous residents. The effort was undertaken by The Oral History Research Center at UNLV, and the John S. Park Neighborhood Association. The project was funded in part by a $69,074 from the Commission for the Las Vegas Centennial. Voices of the Historic John S. Park Neighborhood Oral History Project
