

Mob Museum Artifacts

Grant	$300,000
Organization	300 Stewart Avenue Corporation
Year	2007
	The Centennial Commission awarded a grant of $300,000 to the National Museum of Organized Crime and Law Enforcement, better known as The Mob Museum, for the costs associated with the acquisition of artifacts. The museum focuses on displaying original artifacts and objects related to historical figures and events. The artifacts help tell the stories of organized crime from its inception to modern day, and its relationship with the evolving criminal justice system. The museum is based in the 1933 U.S. Post Office and Courthouse in downtown Las Vegas. https://themobmuseum.org/about-300-stewart-ave/
