Historic Preservation = Sustainability Conference

Grant	$20,000
Organization	Board of Regents, Nevada System of Higher Education, the University of Nevada, Las Vegas (UNLV)
Year	2012
	A Centennial grant of $20,000 was awarded to UNLV's Public History Program to assist with the costs of hosting a one-day conference focused on historic preservation and sustainability practices. The university partnered with Preserve Nevada, a non-profit organization, to produce the event that took place at the Nevada State Museum, Las Vegas on Dec. 1, 2012. More than 200 scholars, entrepreneurs and government officials were in attendance to discuss sustainable building rehabilitation and renewable energy efforts as they relate to historic buildings. Roundtable discussions, lectures and chaired panels were offered to educate and inspire collaboration between attendees.
