

Midnight Muse, Las Vegas: Where Hip Meets Hot

Grants	$43,505
Organization	Forgotten Song Foundation, Inc.
Year	2015
	Midnight Muse was a multimedia project that included the collection of oral histories and musical scores from jazz and big band musicians who operated in Las Vegas from 1960 through 2010. The oral histories were used to create a book about the performers, and the music was used to create a CD. A documentary film was also produced using the oral histories and recorded music. The Centennial Commission awarded two grants to the Forgotten Song Foundation in 2025. The first grant of $28,459 was for the book and recording while a second grant for $15,046 was used for the costs associated with the production of Midnight Muse: The Film. The film is available for viewing on YouTube. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dx0uCqc63hk
